

Christmas Giving Tree 2017

Catholic Charities

Welcomes refugees from oppressed and war torn countries and sponsors them as they adjust to their new lives in Santa Clara County.

Home First (Formerly EHC)

Provides shelter and meals daily to homeless men, women and families through a multileveled network of transitional and long term housing.

Vasona Creek Health Care Facility

Offers short and long term health care and rehabilitation services. Vasona Creek is home to 50 Catholic residents, who are visited by our priests and a team of Eucharistic Ministers to the Sick from St. Mary's.

Heritage House

Heritage House provides homeless, pregnant women with a safe place to live, nutritious meals, and counseling. Post natal care for mothers and infants continues for one year.

Sacred Heart

Ministers to the physical and emotional needs of the hungry and homeless through the distribution of food, clothing, household goods, job counseling, and housing assistance.

Parisi House

Parisi House is Santa Clara County's first mother and child residential alcohol and drug treatment facility. They provide living facilities for mothers that have made the choice to end the cycle of substance abuse.

West Valley Community Services

WVCS provide a continuum of basic needs, family support services and housing services to the West Valley communities of Santa Clara Valley.

Next Door, Solutions for Battered Women

Provides shelter, meals and counseling for battered women and their children. Next Door is currently caring for 45 women and 60 children.

House of Grace

Women in transition, and their young children, find shelter, food and counseling at this place full of the grace of God.

Casa de Clara

A Catholic Worker Home which shelters and feeds women with small children. Casa de Clara follows the model established by Dorothy Day to support the working poor.
